Let's Talk Mental Health in the Workplace

20th October 2020 | 2.30pm to 4.30pm

Laya healthcare would like you to join us for the 2020 Let's Talk Mental Health virtual conference.

Now in its third year, this event is ideal for HR leaders and HR professionals concerned with culture, wellbeing, resilience and engagement with their teams. This year will also have a special focus on the Future of Work and the impact the ever-changing work environment is having on the mental health and wellbeing of all employees, and what wellbeing supports can be put in place to address this.

Featuring international experts, panel discussions and interactive sessions, this event is not to be missed.
